

2027 Technical Exchange

Planned Sessions

As of Oct. 21, 2026. Details subject to change.

Tracks are provided as a guide based loosely on job roles, but attendees are welcome to choose sessions across any track based on their needs and interests.

PLANNED MULTI-TRACK

- Equipment Maintenance
- Implications of Fraud
- Lessons Learned from Assessors
- Pre-Event Primer: The Ultimate TechEx Kickoff Experience!
- QMS Personnel Requirements
- Safety in CMT
- Your Work Has a Story: Turning Technical Expertise into Meaningful Communication

PLANNED TRACK 1 - TECHNICIANS

- ASTM D6913 – Sieve Analysis of Soils
- From Cookies to Construction Materials: Why Good Measurements Matter
- Internal Record Checks Best Practices
- Places You'll Go: Career Development for Technicians
- PSP Reports Explained
- Quality is Your Job Too
- Sorting it Out – A Review of Aggregate Gradations
- Special Inspections

PLANNED TRACK 2 - MANAGERS & SUPERVISORS

- Exploring the Recent AASHTO R 18 Changes
- Lab Management
- Most Likely to Succeed: Training New Lab Technicians
- Navigating the Requirements of the AASHTO Accreditation Program
- Quality Management
- The Tip of the Iceberg: From Root Cause to Corrective Action, Part 1
- The Tip of the Iceberg: From Root Cause to Corrective Action, Part 2
- Unlocking the True Value of Internal Audits

PLANNED TRACK 3 - DIRECTORS

- Implementing a Corporate Quality Management System
- Leadership in CMT
- More than a Sign-Off: Making a Competency Evaluation Meaningful
- Not Just Another Meeting: Making Management Reviews Matter
- Putting AI To Work in Testing & Inspection Agencies
- Quality in CMT
- What You Can Do to Encourage Great Employees to Stay
- Writing Effective Exams